Archibald, Mrs. Charles Sept 1919 (020)

September 6th, 1919

Mrs. Archibald,

St. Regis Hotel,

Sherbourne Street, Toronto.

Dear Mrs. Archibald:

Your letter of August 29th was forwarded to me to Lake Vernon with the result that I have delayed answering it until now. I should be glad to consider the matter with Sir Edmund Walker as soon as I return from Halifax. I am leaving on Monday night to attend the celebration of the centenary of Dalhousie University.

We have hitherto had no course of lectures on Fine Art and I do not know that we can arrange for a new course this year, but I will look into the matter carefully, and wish to thank you for your kindness in bringing Mr. Carruth's name to my attention.

I hope that Mr. Archibald and you have had a pleasant summer and that we shall see you before you return East. We have only got back from our summer holiday and shall not be settled down for a little while yet.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Mrs. Charles Archibald,
St. Regis Hotel,
Sherbourne Street, Toronto.

Dear Mrs. Archibald:

I have again considered carefully the possibility of our having a series of lectures from Mr. Curruth on Florentine Art. I regret, however, to say that the money at our disposal for special lectures is so small that I am not in a position to ask Mr. Curruth to come and give a series during the present winter. There are certain expenses that are always necessary and these leave a very small margin for anything extra.

I have spoken to Sir Edmund Walker about the matter, and like myself he regrets that we cannot see our way to arrange such a course at present.

I am, with kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

President.
